#RedforEd

The teachers of Anne Arundel County are seeing red. As the #RedforEd movement has gained momentum across the entire country, members of TAAAC have joined in. We are standing up to show that we love our public schools. #RedforEd is more than teachers looking out for themselves. Wearing red builds our unity. It reflects our common desire to have the highest quality of education for our students. Red says we expect the best for the people impacted by our education system.

The #RedforEd t-shirts have been an added incentive for people to talk to each other about why education is important to them and what they will be doing during this election cycle. We are hearing from members who are excited about being part of a group again. Members are expressing that our profession is critical to the future success of our students and our county. Through #RedforEd, we are finding our voice again and it is louder than it ever was before. Our own members have told us why they wear red:

Craig Davis, music teacher, Jessup Elementary: “I wear red to show the community I serve that teachers deserve to be treated with respect. As a veteran teacher, I believe we need to reward educators in our county or else we will lose more teachers to surrounding school systems.”

Tracey Greenberg, 4th grade, Central Elementary: “I participate in #RedforEd every Tuesday to demonstrate to my colleagues and students that education matters. When we believe in something, we should stand up for it, and that includes money in the budget for the future of our country…our children.”

Lori Hanczaryk, early childhood resource teacher, Point Pleasant Annex: “I want to participate in wear red for ed because if educators want change to happen, we have to unite together. I truly believe that #wearebettertogether, and we need to support one another. Teaching is hard, it’s exhausting, but it is worth it. We need movements like this to build morale, show unity, and make positive change happen in our field. Teachers and students deserve it.”

Debra Heisman, 3rd grade, Ridgeway Elementary: “I wear Red for Ed in support of better pay for public school teachers! Also, school budgets need to be fully funded so that students have smaller classes and updated materials.”

Diane Barnes-Tice, Special education teacher, Severn River Middle: “We are wearing Red for Ed every Tuesday to show how we are united in our efforts to initiate change in education policies throughout AACPS, Maryland and the United States.”

The County Executive’s Real Record with Teachers’ Pay

County Executive Schuh has boasted both publicly and otherwise about how well he has compensated teachers over the past four years. Those boasts require close scrutiny. The braggadocio contains omissions that obscure the financial injury he’s done to educators.

In negotiations, TAAAC and the Board came to a modest but reasonable settlement for fiscal year 2019. It maintained the annual step increase as promised in the collective bargaining agreement and a 2% cost-of-living adjustment for all Unit 1 educators. On May 1, 2018, Mr. Schuh boasted funding a two-step increase for all teachers. In actuality, it was one-step at the beginning of the year and another at mid-year; and not all teachers are eligible for step increases. The step-and-a-half might have remained a decent deal if he actually funded it. But his $6.1 million cut to the compensation request made the second step possible only if some entire segments of Unit 1 employees were left with no increase at all, and starting salary, critical to recruiting, would remain at its fiscal 2016 level. Further, many local educators would be saddled with fiscal year 2019 benefit costs with salaries at fiscal years 2016 and 2017 rates.

In fiscal year 2018, Mr. Schuh funded the annual step as promised to those eligible in the collective bargaining agreement. But he funded no cost-of-living adjustment; not even while extracting deep multi-year benefit takebacks. To extract those takebacks, he held $22.5 million in one-time non-recurring money hostage to extort agreements from all bargaining units to “save” the AACPS healthcare fund from a “solvency crisis” that he created by back-to-back cuts in healthcare budget requests.

In fiscal year 2017, Mr. Schuh again funded only the step increase promised those eligible by the collective bargaining agreement, with no cost-of-living adjustment even while extracting multi-year increases in prescription co-pays.

In fiscal year 2016, Mr. Schuh announced in his first budget delivery a 2% increase for teachers. At closer inspection we saw that it was only funded for a half year, leaving teachers with only 1% more annual earnings over the previous year. He did not fund the promised step increase to those eligible. TAAAC and the Board did not succeed in reaching agreement on a step increase, which costs slightly more than a 2% cost-of-living adjustment. But paying for the less expensive 2% cost-of-living adjustment required the demise of the stipends provided to educators working in “challenged” schools.

To a great extent AACPS educators self-funded much of what small increases they’ve received. They’ve gotten COLA’s by losing the step increases, received step increases by losing COLA’s; and all the while suffering benefit takebacks and watching their student-loads race upward.

So, what is Mr. Schuh’s real record with our educators?

• It was under Mr. Schuh’s administration that AACPS became the lowest paid of all large urban districts in Maryland.

• It was under Mr. Schuh’s administration that the AACPS fell to 16th of the 24 districts in Maryland when ranked as a favorable place to come and teach according to the 2019 Niche ranking.

Maybe those two bullets say enough.

Do you know that the FAC provides your staff with a direct line to administration and the power to vote and make written recommendations – that by contract generate a response?

- The FAC must exist in every school.
- The FAC must determine arrival and departure times (per admin. approval).
- The TAAAC Representative must be a voting member of the FAC.
- Size of the FAC is determined by the Principal.
- A majority of the members shall be elected by secret ballot of the teachers in an election conducted by the Faculty Representatives.
- The remainder shall be appointed by the Principal.
- The Principal may attend the meetings but has no vote.
- Officers or staff at TAAAC may be invited at the Council’s request.
- The TAAAC Rep. may be the Chairperson, but does not have to be.
- The FAC must meet at least monthly but may meet more often.
- The FAC should take requests in writing from teachers to discuss at meetings.
- The FAC should distribute copies of the agenda to all members of the staff.
- The FAC should make written recommendations to the principal and request the response in writing.
- The FAC should request space at each faculty meeting to report out. This should facilitate regular discussion and communication between the staff and administration.

Pittman / Schuh Debate

The debate between Steuart Pittman and Steve Schuh will take place on Oct. 18 at the Maryland Hall for the Creative Arts. Capital Gazette editor Rick Hutzell will moderate the discussion that begins at 7 p.m. Debate topics will include gun violence, education, development and environmental issues.

TAAAC leadership is urging members to take the time to attend, and attend in RED.

#RedforEd Shirts

You’ve seen the #RedforEd shirts. If you haven’t gotten yours yet, see your TAAAC rep for the petition pledge to vote for Steuart Pittman. T-shirts are now available to non-members as well for a cost of $10 while supplies last. Contact the TAAAC office for shirt purchases.
Jorge Cordoba, ESOL teacher, Arundel High School: “I wear red for ed because public education represents the best option to empower our youth and build a better world.”

The energy in our county around education is just incredible. We know that elevating education requires proper funding. We also know that the people who make the final determination of that funding are our elected County Executive and County Council. Elections matter. Political parties aside, we need elected officials who understand our value and will be champions for our profession with us.

We have one such candidate for County Executive. On October 18 at 7 p.m., our endorsed candidate for County Executive, Steuart Pittman, will face Steve Schuh in a debate focused on education. This is a powerful opportunity to demonstrate that we educators are unified and are paying attention. Can you imagine the power of hundreds, if not thousands of teachers showing up at Maryland Hall to indicate that we will be voting our jobs in November? This is an opportunity to keep our energy moving forward by showing up in our #RedforEd t-shirts and declaring our love for our public schools. Be part of the movement and join your colleagues at MD Hall on October 18 at 7:00 p.m., and wear red every Tuesday.

Compensatory Time Request

Article 15B
Substitutes shall normally be provided for all teachers absent from their regular teaching assignment including art, music, media specialists and physical education. Only after reasonable but unsuccessful efforts to obtain substitutes shall the principal assign teachers to other teachers’ classes during their non-teaching periods.

When an uncovered vacancy causes a class of students to be divided among other teachers for the entire school day, the receiving teachers will each receive one (1) hour of compensatory in which the incidence occurs. Utilization of that leave will be arranged between the teachers and principal or supervisor.

Except in an emergency which occurs during the school day, no teacher shall be required to take a class for another teacher unless the teacher requested to take the class is given a reduced schedule or work load within the next five (5) work days. Substitutes shall be provided for teachers involved in field trips, athletic events or professional meetings approved by the appropriate administrator, provided the event is scheduled for a half day or more and funds are appropriated for this purpose.

Teachers are being asked to cover other absent teachers’ classes in non-emergency situations at an alarming rate. Please use the form below for presentation to your administrator requesting a reduction in workload and/or schedule to restore the time spent covering other classes. Per Article 15B, these reductions are required. If the reduction is denied by the administrator, please contact your TAAAC UniServ Director to initiate the appropriate action.
